CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1945, twenty-seven eager students faced their teachers, Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Musgrave, for the first time. These twenty-seven were Eunice Barnes, Phillip Bruss, Mike Bryan, Jim Dunnuck, Bill Cone, Mary Huffman, Kay Lahr, Lawrence Landrum, Richard Lee, Alta McClain, Janet McHenry, Fred Mercer, Dean Merryman, Jim Shivley, Sandra Storey, Tom Tobin, Beverly Wiley, Jerry Willour, Jane Kethcart, Janice Kethcart, Jim Biddle, Marilyn Cross, Velene Bowers, Earl Holley, Paul Holley, Karlita Bonewitz and Douglas Watkins. Out of the twenty-seven students these seventeen were destined to graduate from Huntington Township. They were Eunice Barnes, Phillip Bruss, Mike Bryan, Bill Cone, Mary Huffman, Kay Lahr, Lawrence Landrum, Richard Lee, Alta McClain, Janet McHenry, Fred Mercer, Dean Merryman, Jim Shivley, Sandra Storey, Tom Tobin, Beverly Wiley and Jerry Willour, Jim Dunnuck started and finished school here, but he spent some of his elementary grades in another school.

After discovering that school wasn't so bad after all, we found ourselves ready for the second grade. Our class was again divided, this time between Mrs. Vernerder and Mrs. Riley. We gained four new students this year. They were as follows: Pat Rader from Horace Mann, Clarence Johnson from Michigan, Pat Duree from Avon, and Larry Smith from Columbia City.

The third grade found us still divided into two sections, Mrs. Vernerder having one section and Mrs. Hugh Brown having the other. This year we lost Jim Dunnuck, who transferred to another school. Our class increased in size with the addition of Gerald Eckert from Huntington Catholic, Diane Elett from Fort Wayne, Jim Sills from State Street, Vernon Byrd, and Nora and Catherine Huffman.

We started the fourth grade with Miss Gesaman as our teacher. A newcomer was Gene Hauenstein from Clear Creek. We lost Douglas Watkins.

We started fifth grade off with a bang under the direction of Mrs. Wike. She taught us many things about wild life. Learning about wild life with us was Janet Hoch from Riley, Pat Hawkins from Fort Wayne, Roger Norton from Ohio, Jim Dunnuck from Lagro, and Riva LaBar. This year Diane Elett and Karlita Bonewitz moved away.

We went on to the sixth grade with wonderful dreams of soon being in junior high school. Cletus Lahr was the teacher. Added to our class were Janet Bowers from Central, Judy Paxton from Tipton, and Rhea Creager from Lincoln. Subtracted from our class were Pat Duree and Larry Smith.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the class of '58, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to our beloved underclassmen the following possessions:

I, Eunice Barnes, will my dancing ability to Loretta Slusser.

I, Janet Bowers, will my drawings to Becky Hummer.

I, Phil Bruss, will to Jerry Ditton my ability to get along with Mr. Mertz.

I, Mike Bryan, will my ability to get 18 days detention for skipping a day of school to Helen Shively.

I, Bill Cone, will to Mack Day my private parking places.

I, Jim Dunnuck, will to Larry Adams my bullet-riddled government book.

I, Donna Earlywine, will my ability to be a cheerleader for several years to Sue Shelhamer.

I, Ray Earlywine, will to Larry Herrick my track shoes.

I, Gerald Eckert, will my ability to get into the movies on a child's ticket to Paul Wall.

I, Diane Elett, will to Scarlett Clark my ability to get along with Mrs. Swan.

I, Dick Funderburg, will my cheerleading job to Ned Yordy.

I, Barbara Hauenstein, will to Betty Rudy my quietness.

I, Gene Hauenstein, will my safe (??) driving habits to Terry Penn. Take good care of them.

I, Janet Hoch, will to Ruth Keplinger my job as class treasurer.

I, Catherine Huffman, will my ability to go with a boy for 2 weeks without knowing his last name to Nancy Smyser.

I, Mary Huffman, will my ability to be engaged in my junior year to Nancy Wires.

I, Max Kohr, will to Bob Hartle my ability to sleep in class. Just don't snore.

I, Riva LaBar, will my ability to play the marimba to Burma Houser.

I, Kay Lahr, will to Judy Cone my ability to sing "Banana Boat" during study hall and never get caught.

I, Lawrence Landrum will my drum sticks to Dale Davis. May they last a few days.

I, Richard Lee, will to Mike Ott my quiet ways.

We, Alta McClain and Janet McHenry, will our ability to keep secrets to Sharon Minton.

We, Fred Mercer and Jim Sills, will to Roger Hall our side burns.

I, Dean Merryman, will my ability to get along with Mr. Baker to Jerry Settlemyre.

I, Judy Paxton, will to Linda Lahr my ability to "borrow" apples from a certain orchard.

I, Patty Rader, will my shortness to Pat Vickery. Can you use it?

I, Jim Shivley, will Dwane Beady my ability to get through school without studying.

I, Sandra Storey, will my ability as a ballet teacher to Dennis Andrew.

I, Tom Tobin, will to Larry Steele my ability to be late to school.

I, Bev Wiley, will my ability to chew gum in government class and always get caught to Sandy Van Meter.

I, Pat (Duree) Williams, will my short hair to Joan Gearhart.

I, Jerry Willour, will to Harold Weaver my ping-pong playing ability.

PROPHECY

We four members of the junior class of '58 predict that in ten years the seniors of said year will be distributed as herein documented.

Catherine and Mary Huffman, after breaking their long engagements, will be writing a lovelorn column in the Sob Sister Journal.

Beverly Wiley will be spending all her time and efforts trying to find out what is "Written on the Wind."

At the Navy Testing Ground at Stupendeo Saturn, Jerry Willour, well known detective, will be hunting down Gene Hauenstein in connection with the theft of a glass of H_2O from the laboratory of Jim Sills, scientist in charge of the Missile Testing Program.

Sandy Storey will be still trying to teach Dick Funderburg ballet, thinking that it might help him to lead cheers, but Dick won't be able to keep his mind on business.

Riva LaBar will be selling stockings for canaries, which is strictly for the birds.

Bill Cone and Janet McHenry will be swinging through the trees on vines while making movies with MGM, playing the roles of Tarzan and Sheena.

Janet Hoch will have just won the Nobel Prize for her latest novel, "How to Trap a Mouse."

Tom Tobin will be teaching the natives of Mercury how to blow smoke rings and do the French Inhale.

Pat Rader will have gone into the singing business. She will be singing Jello ads for Nello, Ausenpher, Birstrom and Nello Company.

Donna Earlywine will have just run the fastest mile in the Olympics. (Maybe we should tell you she was chasing Count Lawrence Landrum and his millions.)

Phil Bruss will be using a meat cleaver on a stack of Sputniks; it seems he will redistribute them. He will steal them off the rockets at Cape Canaveral while the army and navy are still trying to decide whether or not to set them off, and will sell the parts to Russian agents.

Judy Paxton will be a beautician. You should see what she has done for the statues on Easter Island.

Diane Elett will still be playing the piano. She will be appearing with a hillbilly band, Mike Bryan's Bootleggers. She has given concerts with her toes so long that she will no longer wear shoes.

Barbara Hauenstein will be operating an elevator in a large department store in Cairo, Egypt. The occupation has its ups and downs.

Eunice Barnes will be teaching home economics at West Point.

Janet Bowers will be designing the interior of the 1968 Sputnik.

Gerald Eckert will have just finished designing a basket stretcher to aid the little men of basketball.

Alta McClain will have just set a new record for hitting bicycle riders, while driving her midget racer through the streets of Paris.

Jim Dunnuck will be a bachelor. He has had seven engagement rings in circulation at once, and there are no girls on earth who will have anything to do with him. Don't give up the ship; go to Pluto.

On Vanguard, Jupiter, there will be a pro-ball team called the Rinky-Dinks. Their center will be Max Kohr, a basketball genius. Dean "Mutt" Merryman and Ray "Jeff" Earlywine will be student managers. They couldn't make the team.

Dick Lee will be standing on a platform at speakers' corner in Hyde Park, London, England, trying to raise capital to build a race car to enter in the Kenrucky Derby. Maybe someone should tell him that they only race horses there.

Fred Mercer will be the Pizza King of the state after inheriting the business on Etna. He will still be using his Model "A" as a delivery truck.

Jim Shivley will be in the Gobi Desert digging a foxhole. He will be a marine. He tried to join the navy, but could not pass the physical.

Kay Lahr will be teaching the Mars men to play post office. Kay says that sticking to the rules is really a task.

Gale McMahan will be in Alcatraz. He has been in the navy and was caught trying to customize a destroyer.

CLASS HISTORY CONTINUED

At last we reached junior high. Our first class sponsor was Mrs. Isobel Kreiger. New students were Donna and Ray Earlywine from Nevada, Diane Elett from Cleveland, Roy Sargent from South Whitley, and Arthur Lewis from Kentucky. Patsy Arivett, Robert Johnson, Sondra McClain, and Pat Hawkins were also new students. We lost Janet Bowers and Clarence Johnson.

When we entered the second year of junior high, our class sponsor was Mr. Robinson. Joining our class were Janet Bowers from Wabash, Karen Yenna from Elwood, Beatrice Little from Chester Township, Ernest Van Kick, and Sue Hadley. Students leaving were Rhea Creager, Roger Norton, and Earl and Paul Holley.

Upon becoming high school freshmen, we thought we were really "big wheels." Our sponsor this year was Mr. Buzzard. We had only one new member, Barbara Hauenstein from Lutheran School. We lost Jane and Jan Kethcart, Ernest Van Kick, Vernon Byrd, Arthur Lewis, Marilyn Cross and Patsy Arivett.

As we were getting adjusted to high school, we started our sophomore year. Our sponsor was again Mr. Buzzard. Two members, Robert Johnson and Beatrice Little, were missing from the class. Pat Duree returned this year from Martinsville, and we gained one other member, Dick Funderburg, who transferred from Frankfort.

With a host of new activities and duties to attend to, we started a very busy junior year. This was the first year we had two sponsors, these being Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Stong. Five members failed to show up this year. They were Nora Huffman, Karen Yenna, Sue Hadley, Roy Sargent, and Jim Biddle.

At last we have reached the final year. We again have had as our sponsors Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Stong, who had helped us in the previous year. We gained and lost no students. We ended our stay at Huntington Township School with thirty-four graduating in our class.
